The Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

To

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Financial Department.

SIR,

Referring to G.O.No.108-9/M.F.5-28-2 dated 17th July 1928 --- directing that the building known as Amildar's Quarters at Malur and the vacant site adjoining it may be handed over to Mr. B. Venkatasami Naidu subject to certain conditions, I have the honor to submit herewith for kind information of Government a copy of this office order C.No. of 27-28 dated 9 passing orders on the prayers of Mr. Venkatasami Naidu and conveying my appreciation for the generous benefactions made by him.

2. In his petition dated 28th December 1927 Mr. Venkatasami Naidu has made a request that the monthly grant of Rs.5/- paid from the tasdik of the late Malur chattram may be raised to Rs.20/- a month to meet the cost of nityakatle and hetchukatle services in the temple. Agreeing with the views of the local officers, the Deputy Commissioner recommends that the petitioner's prayer may be granted.

3. In consideration of the fact that the temple itself was built by Mr. Venkatasami Naidu at a cost of Rs.10,000/- and that endowments of the aggregate value of Rs.10,000/- have been made, exclusive of the further investment of Rs.3000/- he is prepared to make in ---- rebuilding the "Amildar's quarters" I am of opinion that his prayer for an enhanced grant is worthy of consideration. I beg therefore to -- recommend that an additional grant of Rs.10/- a month may, as a special case,

case, be sanctioned in favour of the Sri Kodanda Ramaswami temple, the charge being met either ~~from~~ from the interest earnings of the General Muzrai Fund or the Chattram Savings Fund from the latter of which as much as a sum of Rs.5849-2-0 a year is being paid to temples for daily worship etc.,(Vide annexure A_1 to G.O.No.1842-3/M.F.290-27-2 dated 14th April 1928)

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Order of the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore.

Reference:--

Petitions dated 28th December 1927 and 19th January 1928 from Mr. B. Venkatasami Naidu, contractor, Malur making certain requests on beha. of the Sri Kodanda Ramaswami temple at the place.

Letter No.A2-C.166/27-28 dated 21st June 1928 from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting a report on the above.

Government order No.108-9/M.F.28-2 dated 17th July 1928 directing that the building known as Amildar's quarters and the vacant site ---- adjoining it may be handed over to Mr. Venkatasami Naidu, subject to the condition that he improves the building at a cost of Rs.3000/- and makes it over to the temple after completion without reserving any proprietor rights for himself or his ~~her~~ heirs over it.

~~Order R.Dis.~~ No. PC 250 / 27-8

Dated Bangalore, 13th August 1928.

In his petitions referred to above Mr. Venkatasami Naidu makes the following requests.

i. That the temple of Sri Kodanda Ramaswami built by him at a cost of Rs.10,000 may be taken under Government management;

ii. That the two houses in Malur town built by him may be taken over for the benefit of the temple;

iii. That the present grant of Rs.5/- a month paid out of the tasdik the late Government Anna chattram at the place may be increased on Rs.20/

lv. That the building known as the Amildar's quarters and the vacant site adjoining it may be made over to him for being rebuilt for providir accommodation to the temple archak and ~~travellers~~ travellers resorting to the place.

& v. That the inam lands endowed to the Sri Anjaneyaswami situated within the temple precincts may be sold and the proceeds deposited under the charitable endowment rules, as adequate gutta is not realized.

2. As regards the first and second prayers, the Deputy Commissioner while stating that the temple is situated in the heart of the town and is an imposing structure, recommends that the temple and the two houses offered by Mr. Venkatasami Naidu which are worth about Rs.10,000/- and are expected to fetch a monthly rent of Rs.30/- may be taken under ---- Government management.

The Deputy Commissioner's recommendation is approved, Necessary

Necessary mutchalikas in suitable terms should be taken from the Donor.

3. As regards the third prayer, the Deputy Commissioner agreeing with the Sub Division Officer recommends that the present grant of Rs.5/ a month may be increased to Rs.20/-

The prayer of Mr. Venkatasami Naidu is under consideration and separate orders will issue in the matter in due course.

4. The building known as the Amildars quarters and the site ----- adjoining it may be handed over to Mr. Venkatasami Naidu for the purpose of effecting repairs subject to the conditions stipulated in the Government order referred to above a copy of which is sent for reference. The building when completed may be made available for the use of the travellers and the temple archak in deference to the wishes of the Donor separate -- arrangements being made in consultation with Mr. Venkatasami Naidu for setting apart one of the two endowed houses for the Amildars quarters.

5. As the Inam lands endowed to Sri Anjaneya Swami situated within the precincts of the Sri Kodanda Ramaswami temple are reported to be --- yielding an annual rental of Rs.60/- their disposal by sale cannot be permitted, as opined by the Deputy Commissioner, and the Sub Division Officer.

6. The appreciation of the undersigned for the generous benefactions made will be communicated to Mr. B. Venkatasamai Naidu.
